HISTORICAL SKETCH

The first Congregational Church in Barton was organized August 27, 1807, by the Rev. Elijah Lyman of Brookfield and Rev. Walter Chapin of Woodstock, Vt. The names of its members, so far as they can be learned, were Lemuel Sturtevant and his wife Priscilla, Cyril Sturtevant, Joseph Tabor, John Brown, Samuel Thatcher, Josiah Smith, Eunice Kimball, Mrs. Alice Wadham and Mrs. Rhoda Pillsbury. It had no permanent place of worship and after a struggling existence of a few years ceased to live. The present church was organized September 24, 1817, by the Rev. Samuel Goddard of Concord assisted by the Rev. Luther Leland of Derby, Vt., and consisted of twenty members as follows: Oliver Blodgett, Ellis Cobb, Cyril Sturtevant, John Kimball, James Sturtevant, Cyrus Sturtevant, Loring Scott, Sarah Adams, Fanny Sargeant, Lucy Sturtevant, Abigail Cobb, Eunice Kimball, Priscilla Sturtevant, Mercy Parlin, Orinda Parlin, Huldah Sturtevant Johnson, Rebecca Chamberlin, Sileta Rawlins, Mary Kimball Parson and Polly Blodgett. October 5th of the same year, the following named persons were received into this church, Stephen Dexter, Remington Knapp, Ichabod Rawlins, Daniel B. Smith, Sally Dexter Merriam, Susanna Noyes and Thankful Smith, and November 30 of the same year, Enoch Noyes, Ethan Blodgett, Lemuel Sturtevant, George Leland, Eliza Works, Rhoda Pillsbury, Lucinda Davis and Elizabeth Davis, making at the close of the year 1817, thirty-five persons who had joined this pioneer church and five of the ten who were members of the first organization in 1807. Rev. Luther Leland was at once engaged to minister to this church. The first house of worship was built in 1820 and dedicated September 6, 1820. Oliver Blodgett was elected its first deacon January 26, 1819. October 25, 1825, Rev. Thomas Simpson was installed the first pastor of this church, and dismissed September 23, 1830. During a portion of the year 1831 the church was supplied by Rev. Otis F. Curtis. In 1833, Rev. Bowman Brown served as acting pastor. March 9, 1834, Rev. Ora Pearson began his labors as stated supply and January 1st, 1840, was installed as pastor of the church at Barton and Glover.

December 29, 1842, a second church was completed and dedicated. November 19, 1844, Mr. Pearson was dismissed. Rev. Levi H. Stone served as acting pastor from July 1845 to 1850 when Rev. Clark E. Ferrin, D.D., began his ministry, being ordained and installed as pastor December 10, 1851, and was dismissed December 19, 1854. Rev. William Scales commenced as a supply April 15, 1855. February 29, 1856, Rev. Edward Cleveland commenced to supply and January 6, 1858, Rev. William D. Flagg was ordained as an evangelist and supplied this church for one year. January 8, 1859, Rev. John Beckwith was acting pastor and March 1, 1860, Rev. Henry A. Hazen came and remained until March 1, 1861. From that date until October 10, services were suspended, as the church was undergoing extensive repairs, and October 11, 1861, the church was re-dedicated and Rev. Benjamin W. Pond was engaged as pastor and was installed January 28, 1862, and dismissed October 5, 1864.

January 11, 1866, Rev. William A. Robinson was installed as pastor and served until April 26, 1871 when he was dismissed.

In 1867 a fine parsonage was built and paid for. From July 7, 1872 until about February 10, 1874, Rev. S. V. McDuffee served as acting pastor. During the year 1874, the present church edifice was completed and September 25, 1874 was formally dedicated and on the evening of the same day Rev. Austin Dodge was installed as its pastor and served until November 27, 1877, when he was dismissed.

September 5, 1878 Rev. Lawrence Phelps was ordained and installed and was dismissed June 1, 1883.

Rev. Calvin B. Moody was called August 15, 1883 and served as acting pastor until November 6, 1887.

Rev. George W. Kelley served as acting pastor from April 1, 1888 to June 1, 1889 when Rev. Daniel A. McLean commenced his labors, serving until about October 31, 1891. From this time for about one year the church was supplied with different persons as candidates.

Rev. A. C. Swain was installed as pastor November 1, 1892, and was dismissed November 30, 1895. Rev. N. M. Pratt was called to this church in June 1896, but resigned August 19 of the same year to accept the pastorate of the Bethany church, New York City. Rev. Robert L. Sheaff was called to become the acting pastor of this church January 4, 1897, and resigned November 30, 1902. Rev. Wilmond A. Warner, the present incumbent, commenced his labors as acting pastor February 1, 1903.

CONFESSION OF FAITH

ARTICLE 1. We believe that there is one God, revealed as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, infinite in power, wisdom, and goodness, and worthy of our highest love, worship and obedience.

ART. 2. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the "Word of God" and are to be observed as the perfect rule of our faith and practice.

ART. 3. We believe that all mankind possess sinful natures and that God sent His Son to be our Saviour.

ART. 4. We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ, by his voluntary humiliation, sufferings and death, made full atonement for sin, and that forgiveness and eternal life are freely bestowed on all who repent of their sins.

ART. 5. We believe that in the same love in which God gave His Son to die, He also sends His Loving Spirit to quicken the hearts of men and that by His gracious influence men are sustained in trial and temptation, and kept through faith unto salvation.

ART. 6. We believe that the Lord Christ has established a visible Church in this world, to consist of those who publicly confess Him their Saviour, and covenant to walk together in the fellowship of the gospel and that the ordinances of the Church are Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

ART. 7. We believe that there should be an observance of the Christian Sabbath, an attendance of public worship, and the practice of godliness, honesty, and brotherly kindness. Such observance and practice we believe to be essential to Christian character and growth.

ART. 8. We believe in the resurrection of the dead.

ART. 9. We believe in a final day of judgment, when a just and benevolent "Heavenly Father" will award to each of His earthly children the measure of reward and discipline which His infinite love and justice shall determine to be right.

(The Apostles' Creed may be substituted for the above.)

While we declare in this form, the faith which we believe to have been once delivered to the saints, we do not restrict the freedom of our members in the interpretation of God's word.

We reserve to ourselves the right to accept from those who may hereafter join us, other evangelical forms of faith, whenever they are consistent with our Savior's teachings and necessary to the liberty of the Gospel.

As much of this as you understand, trusting to God for help in dissolving all doubts, do you accept as your declaration of faith?

RECEPTION OF MEMBERS

Beloved Friends-- Grace be unto you and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

You now present yourselves to make profession of your faith in Christ, to own yourselves his glad disciples, and to enter into communion and fellowship with His Church.

In this public manner, before God, you desire to renew and confirm the vows which you have made before Him in secret.

The following is the Confession of Faith adopted by this Church:

(The confession of faith is here read.)

To these articles of faith, so far as understood, do you give your cordial assent?

(Baptism is here administered.)

You will now make on your part this public Covenant with God and this Church.

COVENANT

Conscious of your sin and weakness in yourself, and accepting the free offer of salvation, relying wholly upon Jesus Christ, you do now give yourself to God, as your God, Jesus Christ as your Saviour, and the Holy Ghost as your sanctifier. You promise to try to walk orderly, waiting diligently upon the Lord, both in public worship, private devotions, and daily life. You agree to take the word of God as your guide, following its precepts as far as you understand them and trusting in its mysteries as something to be revealed hereafter. In joining this church of Christ, you heartily accept it as one body in Christ though imperfect, and recognize its membership as fellow-laborers in Christ Jesus. You promise to watch over the members of this church according to Christ's rule of love and discipline and that you will submit cheerfully to the same lest you "suffer sin upon a brother." You agree to sustain its meetings as far as you can consistently, and by God's aid will so endeavor to live as to its faith and ordinances by your example. You promise to wait upon God in prayer to "forgive your many sins" and help you in your struggles to gain the victory, and to enable you to become more worthy of the "Holy calling" you profess?

Do you thus, in the presence of God and His holy angels, as well as these living witnesses, covenant, promise and agree?

(Welcome by the Church.)

(The members of the church will rise, and the pastor will extend the right hand of fellowship)

We, then, the members of this church, do cordially receive you to our communion, engaging, on our part, to love, pray for and watch over you as Christians, as long as you shall continue among us. In his name we declare you entitled to all the privileges of his church, and covenant to seek your advancement in the life and likeness of Him whose name we bear.

Remember, dear friends, that you have entered into a solemn contract, you have promised to serve God and God has covenanted to preserve and keep you, and at last receive you unto Himself. At eternity this contract will be examined. Christ is faithful, and says to you, "Let not your heart be troubled; neither let it be afraid; peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you." Now, beloved of the Lord, may God guide and preserve you till death, and at last receive you in the "blessed home," above. AMEN.

ADMISSION BY LETTER

(If none join on profession the form of admission will begin here.)

Having heretofore in other Churches, professed your faith, you come now to us with their commendation.

We greet you in the name of Christ our common Lord and Master.

You engage with us to seek the peace and purity of this Church, to submit to its government, so far as conformable to the rules of the Gospel, to sustain its stated services, to labor for its advancement, and to do all in your power that we may here abide together in the fullness of the blessing of Christ.

Do you thus covenant and engage?

(Welcome by the Church to be read here. The members of the Church will rise.)

FORM FOR BAPTISM OF CHILDREN

Encouraged by the Divine promises, and by the tender regard evinced by our Saviour for the little ones, you present your children to be dedicated to God in the ordinance of baptism.

In so doing you desire that they may share in the blessed privileges of those who are of God's household.

Relying upon Divine aid, you engage to instruct these children in the knowledge of God's word, to walk before them in the grace and beauty of the Christian life, and to endeavor in all ways to early lead them in the way of life through our Lord Christ, who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for such is the kingdom of God."

This you heartily engage?

(Baptism is administered after which the minister adds.)

Rev. R. L. Sheaff

We, then, the members of this church receive these children into special relationship of love and care and we give to you, in your parental work, our sympathy and our prayers.

The Lord bless and keep you and your house and bring you, and them, with all the families that call upon his name, into the mansions of His everlasting rest. AMEN.

(Prayer by the minister.)

Note—In the case of a child brought by parents of other, or no church connection, the minister may at his discretion change this form of baptism.

PRINCIPLES OF CHURCH GOVERNMENT

A church of Christ is a company of professed Christians, united together for Christian work and worship, and is established on the basis of the scriptures, the Bible being its only infallible guide to order and discipline and its rule of faith and practice.

Each local church is complete in itself, whose government is administrative, not legislative, and thus are responsible only to the Lord Jesus Christ.

Every church has a right to regulate its own affairs, yet different churches stand in fraternal relations one with another, so that our polity requires due advice from sister churches, in the form of "Councils" at installation and dismissal of pastor, and also any other matters where advice is needed.

A church is bound by its covenant to maintain a spirit of brotherly love, keep a faithful watch over its members, and preserve its own purity by following Christ's rules for discipline, wherever the case requires.

GOVERNMENT OF THIS CHURCH

This church shall be known as "The First Congregational Church of Barton."

This church shall provide proper maintenance for whoever is "teaching in the Lord," allowing all who are taught in word to contribute, and granting to the ecclesiastical society the right of concurrent voice in such provision.

All persons may become members of this church who give evidence of piety and whose views are in harmony with our profession of faith and will give public assent to the same, and the covenant.

Candidates for admission to the church will appear before the proper officers for examination, and if approved, present themselves at preparatory lecture previous to public profession.

Members of other evangelical churches may unite with this church by letter, by giving public assent to the covenant, the church always reserving the right of examination if needed.

Letters of dismissal will be granted to specific evangelical churches, and are considered valid only for a year. Such letters will be granted only to those in good and regular standing, and if one unites with another church, without such a letter, it is deemed disorderly and worthy of discipline.

CHURCH DISCIPLINE

It being the right of every church to preserve its purity, the following are the general rules of procedure.

1. Any immorality of conduct, breach of covenant vows, neglect of acknowledged duties, or avowed disbelief and any public or scandalous censure is regarded as an offense subject to the discipline of the church.

2. It is always to be remembered that the main purpose of discipline is to reclaim, therefore it must be undertaken prayerfully, meekly and in strict accordance with Christ's rule laid down in Matthew 18th.

3. The case for discipline, after the scripture rule has been followed, falls into the hands of the committee appointed to investigate such cases.

4. No accused member shall be brought to trial without due notification, of at least one week's time. Should he (or she) then fail to appear, the case can be tried without him (or her.)

5. After due hearing of the case through trial or its equivalent, the church are satisfied that the member is guilty, they may vote to censure, suspend or excommunicate, according to the offense.

6. In cases where the accused refuses trial, or "disre gards all attempts at reconciliation" it is the duty of the committee to present the case before the church, for their action, and the church can dispose of the case according to rule 5.

7. While one is under censure of excommunication or suspension, he or she is not to be received to spiritual communion in any church, or to voting priveleges in his or her church, except upon repentance and restoration.

RULES AND APPOINTMENTS

Officers of the Church.

Church officers are chosen exclusively by the church, and consist of Pastor, Deacons, Clerk and Examining Committee.

The work of the Pastor is to preach the word, administer the sacraments, preside at the church meetings, and have oversight of the spiritual affairs of the same.

It is the duty of the Deacons to aid the Pastor in all spiritual matters pertaining to the church, and to assist in the administration of the sacrament.

The number of deacons and length of service is left to the will of the church.

It is the duty of the Clerk to keep a strict record of all church actions, make an annual report of the same, and serve as corresponding secretary.

It will be the duty of the Examining Committee, composed of two ladies and two gentlemen, besides Pastor and Deacons, to examine and recommend candidates for admission to the church, investigate and report all irregularities of disorder, and matters of discipline, and look after the interests of the church, their action subject to Church revision.

APPOINTMENTS OF THE CHURCH

The sacraments of the Lord's Supper shall be administered the first Sabbath in January, March, May, July, September, and November at which time shall be taken up a collection for defraying the expenses of the same.

On the Thursday before the first Sabbath in January shall be held the annual meeting of the church, and the mid-week prayer meeting before the communion Sabbath shall be a Preparatory service.

Regular Sabbath worship shall be sustained each Sabbath morning, and some religious service each Sabbath evening.

A special church meeting may be called by the Pastor, or upon written application from three church members, public notice of the same being given from the desk a Sabbath previous.

All questions may be decided by a majority of members present (male and female), and fifteen forms a quorum for any church business.

These rules may be changed or modified by a two thirds vote of members present, provided such a change is consistent with the Bible.
